AT HARRISON'S GRAVE

Will Be Assembled Many Noted Men To Do Him Reverence.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE OBSEQUIES.

Public Demonstration Saturday Will Manifest the High Esteem of the People—Funeral Services Sunday Will Be Unostentatious.

Indianapolis, March 15.—The same atmosphere of quiet that has characterized the Harrison home since the death of General Harrison prevails. Arrangements for the funeral progress rapidly and there were numerous arrivals of relatives and friends. Mrs. Harrison saw all the messages and letters of sympathy; she was consulted about and she expressed her wishes in regard to the arrangements for the funeral and for the entertainment of relatives who will be here. She received no callers, however, except one or two of her most intimate friends.

All of the Harrison family and relatives who will be here for the funeral have arrived except Lieutenant Commander John F. Parker and Mrs. Parker, who will reach this city some time Saturday afternoon or evening. Mrs. Parker is a sister of Mrs. Harrison. Those here are Colonel Russell B. Harrison, the general's son, Mrs. Harrison and their son, William Henry Harrison; Mrs. Mary McKee, the general's daughter; John Scott Harrison, the general's brother; Carter B. Harrison, the second brother; Mrs. Anna Morris, one of the general's sisters, and Mrs. Betty H. Eaton, another sister of the deceased.

John H. Mahoney, the sculptor, took a plaster cast of the features and head of the deceased and the undertakers then took charge and prepared the body for the casket and was removed down stairs, into the front parlor, where it will lie until it is taken to the capitol at noon Saturday to lie in state. So many flowers have been received at the Harrison home that a single room will not hold half of them and these beautiful tributes continue to come in great quantities.

Arrangements for the military display Saturday have been completed and before daylight the troops of the Indiana national guard, all of which have been called out will begin to arrive. All will be here at 10 a. m. and at 11 o'clock will escort the body from the Harrison home to the state house, where it will lie in state until 10 o'clock Saturday night.

The funeral services Sunday will be in charge of the family and will be unostentatious.

Senator Fairbanks and Senator Bevridge are here. Nearly all the Indiana congressmen will be here and distinguished men from all over the country will come.

Indianapolis in Mourning.

The business houses in the city are draped in mourning. All flags remain at half mast. From noon until 2 o'clock Saturday business will be discontinued. John W. Foster, who was secretary of state in General Harrison's cabinet, telegraphed from California that it would be impossible for him to reach this city in time for the funeral. It had been hoped he would be able to come and officiate as one of the honorary pallbearers. Senator S. B. Elkins, who was secretary of war under the Harrison administration, also telegraphed that on account of the illness of Mrs. Elkins he may not be able to come for the funeral. He was also expected to be one of the honorary pallbearers. The list of honorary and active pallbearers for the funeral of General Harrison has not been completed as yet. It is known, however, that all of the members of General Harrison's cabinet who can attend the funeral will be asked to officiate as honorary pallbearers and that all who can be there will accept the honor.

General Benjamin F. Tracy, of New York, ex-secretary of the navy; ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles Foster, ex-Postmaster General John G. Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, and ex-Secretary of the Interior General John W. Noble of St. Louis, have sent word that they will be here for the funeral and they together with ex-Attorney General W. H. H. Miller of this city, will constitute part of the honorary pallbearers. Judge Judson Harmon of Cincinnati, who was attorney general under President Cleveland will be here for the funeral, but it is not known if he will be one of the honorary pallbearers.

All the active pallbearers will be Indianapolis men who were intimate friends of the general.

The work of rapping and decorating First Presbyterian church, where the funeral services will be held, will be completed Saturday. A 25-foot flag will be draped over the arch of the main entrance, and the pilasters and door casings will be covered with black, with a slight touch of white, the effect of a second arch being given. Inside the church will be draped with heavy festoons of black hanging from the lower line of the balcony with a touch here and there of white. The balcony will be draped in solid black, with a line of white along the top, and flags will be draped over the doors. Over the organ pipes and nearly concealing the entire organ, will be heavy black drapings and over this will be two immense flags. The front of the platform and the railing about the choir will be covered with solid black. At the foot of the platform will be placed flowers and palms and a palm will be placed on the two corners of the platform, with smaller flowers between them and the pulpit so arranged as not to interfere with the view. The two front, center pews will be removed, so as to make room for the floral offerings on the coffin. The Harrison pew will be draped in black with black and white rosettes, and a silk flag will be draped from the back of the pew in front.

The first 15 minutes in the public schools Friday were devoted to suitable talks by the teachers on the life and public services of General Harrison by recommendation of the school superintendent. In many of the schools the address that General Harrison made to the school children of Terre Haute, when they visited the state house, Feb. 3, was read. The flags on the schools, as well as on all other public buildings, will be at half mast until after the funeral.

In Honor of Harrison.

Washington, March 15.—An order was issued from the war department, accompanying the president's proclamation, relative to the death of former President Harrison, requiring that the day of the funeral at each military post, the national flag shall be displayed at half staff, the troops and cadets paraded and this order read to them. At dawn 13 guns will be fired and afterwards one at intervals of 30 minutes between the rising and setting of the sun and at the close of the day the president's salute of 45 guns. The usual badge of mourning will be worn 30 days by officers of the army and the colors of the several regiments, artillery corps, United States corps of cadets and of the engineer battalions will be placed in mourning the same period.

Tennessee's Tribute.

Nashville, Tenn., March 15.—A resolution concerning the death of ex-President Harrison was introduced in the house by Representative Gordon, a Democrat and unanimously adopted under a suspension of the rules. The resolution says the country has lost an able statesman, a profound thinker, a pure patriot and a great man whose life and character and deeds have added lustre to the name of American citizenship throughout the world. The resolution expresses regret and extreme sympathy to the family and says: "We pay this tribute of our admiration of his greatness and give this expression of our estimate of his high character."

Observance in Ohio.

Columbus, O., March 15.—Governor Nash issued a proclamation, inasmuch as General Harrison was a native of Ohio, calling on the people of Ohio to manifest their sympathy for the bereaved and urging that flags on state, county and municipal buildings be placed at half staff in honor of the late ex-president the day of his funeral. Orders to the state militia similar to the orders to federal army posts have been issued by Adjutant General Gyger, and Battery H, at Columbus will fire salutes all day in accordance with regular army regulations. Governor Nash and staff will attend the funeral.

Michigan's Official Mourners.

Lansing, Mich., March 15.—The Michigan senate will be officially represented at the funeral of ex-President Benjamin Harrison by Senators McMullen, Sovereign and Losser, who are appointed as such a committee.

FIRE AND PANIC.

One Perished and Several Injured in Washington Hotel Blaze.

Washington, March 15.—Electric light wires started a fire in the Merchant's hotel, 485 Pennsylvania avenue, which spread rapidly, causing panic among the guests, several of whom jumped from windows.

I. F. Henry, 48, was suffocated. Stephen Collins, proprietor of the hotel, had both legs badly burned, deep burn in the neck and burned about the face and arms. His condition is serious but not necessarily fatal. W. B. Catchings of Kentucky, had his back sprained; legs and right side bruised by jumping from a window; John Scanlon, head cut by jumping from window; W. B. Ketchum of Connecticut, bruised by falling down stairs. Firemen easily extinguished the flames. The damage to the building was small.

VERY SHORT SESSION.

Mine Workers Convention Considering The Scale of Wages.

OPERATORS DO NOT MEET THE MEN.

Despite Attitude of Operators It Is Not Expected There Will Be a Strike—Extension of Advance Will Probably Be Accepted.

Hazleton, Pa., March 15.—The United Mine Workers' convention was not in session half an hour Friday morning. In the absence of a report of the scale committee, which President Mitchell said had not yet come to agreement an adjournment was taken until 1:30 p. m., awaiting the committee's report, and to meet any operators who may be present to enter into joint conference. Up to this time, not an operator has signified his intention of meeting the men.

President Mitchell confirmed the report of John Fahey's resignation as a member of the national executive board. Fahey is still president of district No. 9.

Notwithstanding the operators have practically refused to attend the conference it is not thought there will be a strike. The vote on the wage schedule, it is expected, will be in favor of accepting the renewed offer of the operators for a continuance of the 10 per cent advance.

Baits For Trade.

Washington, March 15—Consul General Guenther at Frankfort in a communication to the state department states that a comemorial museum will be instituted in Caracas, Venezuela to exhibit European industrial and art products and is to receive government aid. Branch museums also are to be opened in Valenela, Maracaibo, Bolivar, Barquisimeto and at other places deemed advisable. Goods for the museums will be admitted free of duty; such duty will be exacted only after the goods are sold. No expenses will be charged exhibitors, who are advised to send at least five copies of samples and price lists so that the branches also can be supplied.

Population of India.

Calcutta, March 15.—Complete census returns give the population of India as 294,000,000, an increase in the last decade of 7,000,000. Deducting the population of the Baluchistan, Shastaks, Chin Hills and Sikkim territory, enumerated for the first time, a net increase is shown of only 1.4 per cent, which is due to improved census methods. Thus the population is for the first time stationary. Owing to two famines, mortality from disease and a great decline in the birth rate, the native states show excessive declines. These results were quite unexpected.

The McKinleys at Canton.

Canton, O., March 15.—President and Mrs. McKinley and party reached Canton at 11 a. m. They were met at the station by a number of old friends acting as a reception committee. The president and Mrs. McKinley, Secretary Cortelyou and Dr. Rixey went direct to the Barber residence, the old home of Mrs. McKinley, where Mrs. McKinley will remain until the return to Washington. The president will start for Indianapolis Saturday to attend the Harrison funeral. There was no special demonstration at the depot.

Carnegie's College.

Pittsburg, March 15.—Intimate friends of Andrew Carnegie say it is his intention to give at least $25,000,000 for the erection of buildings and endowment of the proposed technical school of Pittsburg. It is also declared by those who have talked with Mr. Carnegie that he intends to make this school the finest of its kind in the world and that it will lend as much fame to Pittsburg in the theory of iron and steel making as his famous works have done in actual practice.

Lake Steamer in Peril.

Racine, Wis., March 15.—The steamer Indiana of the Goodrich line, lost her rudder in a storm of North Point early and was left at once at the mercy of the storm. The Atlanta of the Goodrich line, after a hard struggle towed the disabled steamer to harbor, but the Indiana dragged five miles south. Efforts will be made to get the disabled craft to port. A terrific gale prevails from the northeast. The Indiana has 25 passengers and crew of 15.

Carrie Again Arrested.

Kansas City, March 15.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, who has been visiting here, was arrested for obstructing the sidewalk. She was later released on her promise to take the train for Topeka. Mrs. Nation stopped to harangue a crowd which became so large that traffic was stopped. Upon her refusal to move on an officer marched her to the station.

ROW IN A SENATE.

Lawmakers Disagree on a Measure And Come to Blows.

Olympia, Wash., March 15.—Representative Easterday of Pierce county and Senator Ruth of Thurston county, came to blows on the floor of the senate. The trouble arose over Ruth's vote in favor of postponing a bill to repeal the libel laws of the state.

Representative Easterday was on the senate floor and as soon as he saw that his bill was beaten he walked over to Ruth and called the latter a liar, accusing him of promising to support the bill. Ruth retorted sharply and Easterday struck him.

The wildest excitement prevailed and for a moment it looked as though the session of the senate would wind up in a disgraceful scene. Senator Baker relieved the situation by moving to adjourn until evening, which prevailed. The defeat of the bill to repeal the libel law is a victory for the newspapers of the state.

BLACKMAILER FOILED.

Tried to Fleece Son of Senator Clark Employed Boy For Catapaw.

Butte, Mont., March 15.—Police officials have made public details of an attempt to blackmail Charles W. Clark, son of Senator W. A. Clark, out of $5,000. Mr. Clark, a few days ago, received a letter directing him to send the money in small bills to "Wyo," Butte postoffice. The blackmailer added significantly that he was a dead shot.

The letter was turned over to postal authorities and the general delivery window was watched several days. Finally a small boy called for a package addressed to "Wyo." He was arrested and questioned. He said a masked man gave him 25 cents to call for the package. He proved his innocence completely. The blackmailer is still at large.

Given a Royal Sendoff.

London, March 15.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York have started on the first stage of their tour of the four quarters of the globe. King Edward, Queen Alexandra and other members of the royal family accompanied the travelers to Portsmouth, whence the steamer Goliath with the Duke and Duchess on board, will sail Saturday. The departure of the king and queen from Marlborough House was accompanied by a semi-state ceremonial. His majesty was in full naval uniform and his carriage was escorted by a detachment of life-guards. The duke and duchess drove to the railroad station quietly from St. James palace. Small gatherings along the route cheered the royal couple.

Villain Assails a Child.

Dayton, O., March 15.—Edith Shinkle, a 9-year-old girl was assaulted and choked into insensibility by an unknown man in the outhouse of the village school at Gratz, Preble county. His designs were thwarted by the unexpected appearance of the schoolmistress. An armed posse on horseback and afoot is scouring the country in search of the villain and if he is captured lynching is more probable. It is reported that the fugitive was captured at Winchester.

Duel Interjected.

Lausanne, Switzerland, March 15.—The duel which had been arranged between M. Paul Deroulede and M. André Buffet, growing out of the controversy over the action of the royalists at the time of the coup d'état planned by M. Deroulede and M. Marcel Habert, on the occasion of the funeral of President Faure in 1899, has been abandoned, the authorities having issued a decree expelling both combatants from Switzerland.

A Connecting Link.

Toledo, March 15.—The Toledo and Chicago was incorporated to construct and operate a railroad from the Wabash line at Montpelier, O., to Toledo, a distance of 65 miles. The capital stock is $250,000 and the incorporators are B. C. Winston of New York, and F. J. Reynolds, George H. Beckwith, C. H. Newton and C. L. Reynolds, Toledo.

Bon to Fight a Duel.

Paris, March 15.—The seconds of Count Boni de Castellane and M. De Rodays met and decided that a duel shall take place Saturday morning as an outcome of their quarrel. Two shots will be exchanged at 25 paces. M. Perivier, one of M. Rodays' seconds, who is co-manager of the Figaro, declared the duel would be private.

SIGNIFICANT SILENCE.

Kitchener Doesn't Say a Word About Peace Negotiations.

WAR MAY HAVE TO BE ENDED AGAIN.

Weather Is Wet and They Can't Catch Dewet Who Has Reached a Locality Where He May Receive Reinforcements to His Army.

London, March 15.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener is so studiously silent on the subject of the peace negotiations it leads to the conclusion that nothing has yet been accomplished of a sufficiently definite character to justify lending official support to the view that the war is over. Nor do General French's movements indicate a cessation of hostilities, although possibly as no date is given, his captures were made previous to the granting of the armistice. Lord Kitchener's dispatch at Pretoria Thursday evening, reports as follows: "Dewet has reached Senekal on his northward progress. French, in addition to his previous successes, reports 46 Boers killed or wounded, 116 taken prisoners and surrendered with 200 rifles, 5,700 rounds of ammunition, 2,400 horses, 2,500 cattle and 400 wagons and carts besides mules and trek oxen. Methuen has arrived at Warrenton from Klerksdorp, bringing in prisoners and cattle. The weather is wet, delaying the movements of the columns."

A dispatch from Pretoria, after noting General Dewet's arrival at Senekal, Orange River colony, says that although he has only a small following, he is likely to receive considerable reinforcements and probably intends to pick up roving bands of republicans who are ever present in the Dornberg and Korannenberg districts. General French was detained by swollen drifts in the Pieter district but is now able to move again.

A dispatch from Cape Town reports that Scheper's and Milan's commandos have turned southward and are within 40 miles of Willowmore, and that the British are following them.

Parisian Pro-Boers.

The Hague, March 15.—M. Henri Rochefort, and other Parisian pro-Boers, are here conferring with the supporters of the South African republics. They will visit Mr. Kruger at Utrecht.

Boer Emissaries in Berlin.

Boers Cut Wires.

Cape Town, March 15.—The Boers, having cut the wires, telegraphic communication between the eastern provinces and Natal is interrupted.

Cosmopolitan Looters.

Peking, March 15.—Eight Australians have volunteered for railway service for a term of six months. It is reported that a large band of military deserters of different nationalities is committing depredations between Peking and Tien Tsin. A small squad of Germans encountered the band and was compelled to retire. British cavalry was despatched to disperse the marauders.

Chance For a Clash.

Tien Tsin, March 15.—The British and Russians are disputing over the limits of railway property in the Russian concessions and guards of the two nations are in close proximity to each other. The British have been strongly reinforced and trouble is imminent unless the Russians retire.

Friction Acknowledged.

DEMOCRACY IN PUBLIC BUSINESS.

We cannot too often repeat the recent declaration of an able Democratic leader (Judge Harmon) that "it is not Democracy to fill the treasury by needless taxation," and that it is equally undemocratic to deplete the treasury by reckless and corrupt expenditure. But, if in the teeth of well-established Democratic principles, the revenues should continue to be exploited in the interest of rings, trusts, "combines," and unscrupulous corporations of every sort, it becomes absolutely necessary to enforce all existing laws (and to enact others if necessary) that are designed to impose a check upon carelessness and corrupt administration in our financial affairs—whether National, State, county or municipal. This sort of inefficient or neglectful administration is not far to seek, and there is danger that we may overlook its existence at our very doors. How many of our citizens, for example, are familiar with the legal restrictions that are thrown around the administration of fiscal matters in the various counties of the State? How many of our best-informed business men even suspect the extent of the discretionary powers lodged with our fiscal courts in the administration of local affairs? It is vaguely known, perhaps, that a County Treasurer is appointed by the Fiscal Court on the first day of the regular April term; but what are the powers, duties, obligations and statutory functions of this important official? It is very necessary that every tax-payer should bear in mind that the County Treasurer has duties imposed upon him which he should not be permitted to neglect, ignore or overlook. The late Judge Phister (a remarkably able man) was a strenuous advocate of rotation in financial office, and, on one occasion, in a mass convention at the court house, made a vigorous and effective protest against the renomination of the subsequently famous defaulter "Dick" Tate. Not that any suspicion attached at that time to the State Treasurer, but the principle of perpetual re-election to financial office was considered to be dangerous on account of the lax administration of our fiscal laws; and the system of "mal-administration" based upon it, even without corrupt intent, is often as dangerous and undesirable in a county as in a State. And, yet, how admirably fitted for the end in view are the present statutory provisions if interpreted and enforced by a vigilant fiscal court. The County Treasurer is actually protected against himself. He is required, for example, to keep a book or books in which he shall preserve a correct and accurate account of all monies received or disbursed by him for the county,—showing when, from whom and on what account received; and when, to whom, and on what account paid. All receipts and payments (says the statute) shall be exhibited in separate and distinct accounts, and the money so received shall not be disbursed for any other purpose than that for which it was collected and paid over to him as Treasurer. On his failure to make the required exhibits within five days after payments are made, "he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor," and, on conviction, fined. It is expressly provided, too, that the books of the Treasurer "shall be at all times open to the inspection of the Fiscal Court, or any member thereof."

As the taxing powers are now making keen inquisition into the sources of individual wealth, is it not worth while for the tax-payers to keep a vigilant eye upon the conditions of official expenditure? They should certainly insist that all statutory requirements be strictly interpreted and rigidly enforced; that all fiscal agents shall be selected solely with a view to the public interest, and held to a rigid official responsibility; that there shall be no suspicion of dickerings or deals with corporate or commercial interests; that all public funds shall be deposited, in accordance with business methods, in solvent and reputable banks; that all profits legitimately derivable from the use or investment of public monies shall enure exclusively to the benefit of public interests; that all available collections shall be promptly applied to the extinguishment of public indebtedness; that all specific appropriations shall be applied as legally directed, and that the public money shall be saved for public uses by the reduction of rates of interest, as well as by the prompt extinguishment of public debt.

These are old-fashioned Democratic methods and have their basis in the General Statutes of the Commonwealth.

STILL MISSING.

No Trace of H. L. Harney, Who Mysteriously Disappeared More Than a Week Ago.

No trace has yet been discovered of H. L. Harney, the dairyman, who mysteriously disappeared Wednesday evening, March 6th.

On the evening in question about 5:45 o'clock, two men who knew Mr. Harney well saw him standing on the stonewall between the east end of the Limestone bridge and Mr. W. W. Ball's residence. This was the last seen of him. He was gazing down into the creek at the time, and it is feared now that he drowned himself.

It was thought at first that he had gone to the home of a brother in Nicholas, or of another brother out in Iowa, but these have been heard from and know nothing of his whereabouts.

Mr. Harney is forty years of age, has light hair, sandy mustache, gray eyes, is five feet ten inches in height, weighs 150 pounds and wore a check coat and vest, brown corduroy pants and a celluloid collar when he disappeared.

It was thought by some that he went to Cincinnati to find work, but the belief is growing stronger that he drowned himself or was foully dealt with. He had $35 or $40 when he left home.

His wife will give a liberal reward for information of his whereabouts, and in case of his death she will give $50 for the recovery of his body.

Mr. Harney was insured in the New York Life for $1,000.

The missing man had been out of business for some time and had been greatly disheartened and discouraged over his failure to secure work.

Ex-Gov. J. Proctor Knott, of Danville, is again able to leave his room after a severe illness of several weeks and will shortly resume his duties in the department of law and political economy in Centre College.

Thieves visited Mr. Jacob Wormald's henroost Thursday night and almost "swept the platter clean," taking seventeen hens and a rooster, fine Plymouth Rocks. One hen got away from the thieves, and they overlooked one that was setting.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Green learn with regret that they are to leave soon for Findlay, O., where he goes to engage in the insurance business. He has, for the past two years, been one of Mr. C. L. Rosenham's valued assistants in this city with the Western and Southern Life Company and has been promoted to Assistant Superintendent, with headquarters at Findlay.

Charles B. Hanford's success with "Private John Allen" has not only brought him added reputation as a versatile actor, but an increase of the prestige as a manager which his Shakespearean productions had won him. In "Private John Allen" he backed his own judgment and the result has been complete vindication of his ideas of what will please a modern audience.

Services at St. Patrick's Church Sunday at 7:30, 9 and 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at the usual hour. Vespers, benediction and lecture at 7:30 p. m. Subject for the lecture will be "Patriotism and Ireland," and should be attended by a large audience. It is not necessary to speak of Father Ennis' ability as a lecturer. Suffice it to say those who fail to attend will miss an oratorical treat.

Relatives in this city are just in receipt of news of the death of Mr. Charles F. Duke at Vallejo, California, Feb. 12th. He dropped dead of heart disease as he was walking along the street. Mr. Duke was seventy-seven years old, and was a native of Maysville. He was a cousin of Messrs. Q. A. and R. F. Means, and leaves two nephews, one at Evansville, Ind., and the other in Missouri. He was never married, and had been a resident of Vallejo only two weeks at the time he was stricken.

A branch of the Zion Christian Catholic Church, of which John Alexander Dowie is at the head, will be founded at Danville under the leadership of Mr. W. B. Holmes. Mr. Holmes is one of the wealthiest and most influential of the Dowie followers at Danville and two years ago burned valuable stock of tobacco in the street during a revival. He also destroyed a large quantity of lard and pork, and refuses to deal in "disease-breeding swine's flesh."

The postolico at Buchanan, Lawrence County, and Cannonsburg, Boyd County, were robbed this week. Thirteen tramps were arrested at Ashland Thursday on suspicion, but the evidence was insufficient to hold them. After their release they engaged in a pitched battle with some railroad men, who were searching the tramps' camp. The railroad men were routed, but when the police arrived the tramps fled. Some of the gang no doubt passed through Maysville yesterday and the night before, as tramps were unusually numerous.

A good deal of gardening has already been done.

The gross earnings of the Louisville and Nashville for the first week of March show an increase of $48,445. From July 1 last the increase is $627,663.

Our Washington correspondent had the pleasure some years since of shaking hands with the late Benjamin Harrison. He was at the White House also when Lincoln occupied it, but failed to see him.

Let the Board of Directors of the New Public Library not fail to remember the regular monthly meeting at the library on Monday, March 18th, at 10 o'clock a. m. sharp. Everybody must be present as there is business of importance to be transacted.

The protracted meeting conducted by Elder Howard T. Cree at Ashland is attracting large audiences nightly and is proving a gratifying success. There were four additions Thursday night, six the night before and some previous to that. Mr. Cree will remain over Sunday.

FRANK OWENS HARDWARE CO.

BE ON YOUR GUARD.

If You Give Negotiable Notes You'll Have to Pay Whether You Get Value Received or Not.

Some of our local banks have been interviewed this week by parties traveling through the county selling goods, with a view to dispose of negotiable paper that they propose to take for the goods sold. As they offer the paper at much larger discount than legitimate business would justify, it can be reasonably supposed that the "bargains" they offer will be of questionable character.

It is always safe to steer clear of these fellows; they are glib of tongue, and when you once give a negotiable note, no matter what value you receive, you will have to pay the note.

BALLINGER, jeweler and optician.

The Bonelli Bros., trick barrel jumpers and acrobats, have astounded the patrons of Hammerstein's and Koster & Bial's in New York by their marvelous skill and grace. Harry Boyd, "The Black Turkey," in his original coon conception and flat foot buck dancing, is a peerless artist and has won widespread commendation. Willie Bridge, the boy soprano, "the wonder of the musical age," is another stellar feature with the Barlow Minstrels. His "Choir Boy's Dream" and "The Holy City" are two of the most popular songs in his varied repertoire. Chas. Cartmell, in his imitation of Beau Brummell, gives a brilliant performance. The Barlow quartette always makes a hit. Last, but one of the top-liners, are Coburn and Baldwin, the skillful musical artists, whose various melodious selections and medleys have charmed thousands of play-goers throughout the country. A street parade will take place at noon Monday, and you must not miss these minstrels Monday night. Seats on sale at Nelson's.

CANT KEEP IT UP.

Can't Deceive Maysville People Very Long. They Learn Quickly.

It is sometimes an easy matter to fool the public, but you can't keep it up very long. They are sure to find you out; and every time man is fooled another skeptic is made. We are naturally skeptical when reading a published statement given by some stranger residing in a faraway place, but the circumstances are entirely different when home endorsement is presented. The testimony of local citizens renders deceit impossible. It is so easy for you to investigate. Read this case:

Mr. George N. Crawford, blacksmith and wheelwright, corner of East Second and Lee streets, says: "The great benefit which speedily follows the use of Doan's Kidney Pills seems little short of miraculous. I procured the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, and by the time I had used one box I was cured. If any one suffers from kidney trouble which such an effective kidney cure as Doan's Kidney Pills can be had the faint is their own."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
